TIGERS DOWN HOPKINSVILLE ON FRIDAY

Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

One of the greatest understatements in history was the time Noah looked out and said "It looks like rain."

The next time we put out a Juniperus Chinensis Hotel we are going to wear gloves. This goes also for the Juniperus Chinensis Hotel crans Compactus or any other plant, spreader or what have you that has stickers on it.

This small evergreen just down-right hurts when you stick the little stickers in your hand.

If you want to get into some hard work start putting out plants.

If you have something nice to say to someone, say it before they pass on. They can't hear too good after that occurs.

If a person exercised his full potential there is no telling what he could do.

Take the Tigers last night. Had they played that way when they met Trigg County, they could have beaten them 40 to 0. Had they played that way against Tisham, they could have beaten them handily.

Murray High had the best blocking last night of any game this year.

Terry Hart repeatedly opened the way for Don Shelton by taking out an opposing player with a good block.

This mental thing of doing your best, calling on all your resources, drawing from your full potential, performing to your best ability, is the secret of success. Most folks

Giant Anti-War Rally Held In Nation's Capital

By LOUIS CASSELS

UPI Senior Editor

WASHINGTON 20 — Thousands of antiwar demonstrators poured into the nation's Capital today from as far away as Texas and Chicago to march on the Pentagon in protest against America's involvement in Vietnam. The government was hoping for the best but preparing for the worst.

Federal officials granted a permit for the massive rally to show the world the United States is strong enough and free enough to tolerate a display of dissent on the very steps of its defense headquarters.

But grim officials warned they will not permit an invasion of the Pentagon or any other disruption of the government's normal functioning.

"We will do whatever is necessary to maintain law and order," said Deputy Atty. Gen. Warren Christopher.

Backed By Troops

On hand to put muscle behind his words were some 6,000 paratroopers, military police and other regular Army troops brought into the Washington area from bases as far away as California. Another 20,000 troops were on alert at nearby bases for quick movement into the Capital if needed.

The demonstration was scheduled to start at 11:30 a.m. EDT with speeches from the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, and continued throughout the weekend, with most of the activity centering on the Pentagon's enormous grounds across the Potomac River from Washington.

Hundreds of demonstrators began arriving in the Capital Friday from all major cities on the Eastern seaboard and from other more distant points.

Leaders of the rally predicted that 70,000 to 100,000 protesters would be on hand by the 1:30 p.m. scheduled hour of the march from the Lincoln Memorial to the Pentagon.

Government officials were inclined to discount this forecast somewhat, but one said he would not be surprised to find the crowd reaching 80,000. District of Columbia police revised their estimate downward, however, to 25,000.

Government spokesmen hoped none of the troops would see action. They planned to rely on civilian and military police, including an augmented force of U.S. marshals, to prevent the demonstration from going beyond the bounds of "peaceable assembly."

to petition for redress of grievances," one of the basic rights guaranteed Americans by the First Amendment to the Constitution.

But leaders of the National Mobilization Committee to end the War in Vietnam, which organized the demonstration, served advance notice that some participants intended to "violate in acts of civil disobedience" not covered by the permit.

Officials stated off a clearly-defined area in front of the Pentagon's main hall entrance for the demonstrators. But they were prepared to deal firmly with any attempt to break through the police lines and storm the entrance to the vast, five-sided building, nerve center of U.S. defense.

May Camp Out

Some demonstrators said they planned to camp on the Pentagon grounds through the weekend and form a human barricade across entrance roads Monday morning to keep its 27,000 employees from reporting to work.

Officials said the demonstrators would have to clear out of the Pentagon grounds by midnight Sunday — or be cleared out.

The American Civil Liberties Union issued a statement deploring the presence of troops at the

None Hurt In Accident On Friday

A two-car collision occurred Friday at 11:15 a. m. at 12th and Main Streets, according to the report filed by Patrolmen Dale Spahn and Mosell Phillips of the Murray Police Department.

Cars involved were a 1962 Oldsmobile four door sedan, driven by Leslie T. Rose of 109 North 7th Street, and a 1967 Dodge two door hardtop driven by Jeffrey K. Broach and owned by Hazel Broach.

The police said Broach, traveling north on 12th, made a left turn off 12th on to Main and struck the Rose car in the left rear bumper as it was going west on Main.

Damage to the Rose car was to the right rear bumper and to the Broach car to the right front fender.

Two other minor collisions were reported but no reports were filed.

Citations were issued to one each for unnecessary noise, no city sticker, and speeding, according to the department records.

Mental Health In Home Is Subject For Dr. Harston

"Mental Health In The Home" was the theme of the talk by Dr. Marlow Harston presented at the meeting of the Home Department of the Murray Woman's Club on Thursday at two p.m. at the club house.

Dr. Harston discussed problems relating to the baby, teenager, and adult in the home. He stressed that mothers are the most important of all in regard to the care of the baby and his needs. He said the baby's needs must be met immediately because they do not understand and start feeling unloved, to fear, and even to begin to hate.

The speaker said the teenager needs discipline with love, but needs to be able to make decisions on his own. He said, in addition, that the most painful sight is the feeling that no one cares for the person.

Dr. Harston said the highest goal for anyone is "to be like Christ."

The speaker discussed the program of the Mental Health Center. He is executive director of the Western Kentucky Regional Mental Health-Mental Retardation-Advisory Board, Inc.

Capt. Gaylord Forrest was introduced by Mrs. Bun Crawford, program chairman, who presented Dr. Harston. Mrs. Julie Lovins, resident social worker, was also introduced.

Mrs. Nix Crawford, department chairman, presided at the meeting. Hostesses were Mesdames Margaret Brink, H. E. Wedgworth, Orr, Garvin, Gentry, Lullier, Robertson, Bun Crawford, and Maynard Ragdale.

Offense And Defense Work Smoothly To Gain Victory

The Ty Holland football machine at Murray High clicked last night, with both offense and defense performing well against a dangerous Hopkinsville eleven. Murray High won 26 to 6.

Murray High scored first with 3:54 left in the first quarter scoring in nine plays after taking over on the Hopkinsville 23 yard line. Hopkinsville had tried a field goal which failed. The TD came when James Bland kicked a pass to Jerry Knight who was standing in the end zone. It was the only pass of the series which led to the marker. Terry Hart's kick was wide for the PAT.

Hopkinsville had received the kickoff and reeled off first downs to the Murray 23 where they were halted. Hopkinsville was stopped cold by the defensive wall of Murray with Glen, Mike Smith Hideo and Bob Rutledge giving ground only grudgingly.

Terry Hart provided a key block for Don Shelton who sped from the Hopkinsville 22 to the 9. Hart blocked well throughout the night springing Shelton loose time and again.

Hopkinsville took the ball once more after the Murray TD and began a march which failed but the recovery of a fumble put the Hopkinsville Tigers on the scoreboard.

Hopkinsville bogged down on their own 44 and kicked out to the Murray 38. Hart moved to the 44 then the 47 where he fumbled the ball which was recovered by Kendrick of Hopkinsville.

Hopkinsville moved the ball to the Murray 24 where the carrier was stopped by Jerry Knight. On the next play Bobby Adams, the Hopkinsville quarterback completed a pass to Hideo on the Murray 5. Adams took it over on a quarterback sneak and the kick by Gerald Thomas failed. The ball struck the goal post and bounced back, 10:17 remained in the first half.

With the ball game tied up 6-6, Murray took the kickoff on their own five, and after no gains, kicked out to their own 48 yard line. The Tigers got the ball back in a hurry however. Hopkinsville tried one pass which was incomplete and on the second one, Dana

Ford Contract Is Near Reports Show

By DAVID W. CHUTE

DETROIT 20 — Negotiators return to the bargaining table today to work out the final wording on a contract reportedly giving some 100,000 Ford Motor Co. workers record gains of $1 an hour.

Talks resume at 11 a.m. EDT today.

Ford and United Auto Workers bargaining teams put in a grueling 31-hour session ending Friday, bringing them to the brink of a full settlement of the strike, now in its 45th day.

The two sides have agreed on the basic wage and fringe benefits package — totaling at least $1 per man hour over the three-year life of the contract. But a hitch apparently developed in finalizing the agreement into specific contract language.

Record Blackout

The news blackout — in its record 12th day — continued. Neither Ford nor the UAW would say when they would formally announce the end of the strike.

The UAW, already planning for an end to the strike, has bought a special one-hour time slot Sunday on a Detroit television station featuring union president Walter P. Reuther and Ken Bauman, his right-hand man in the Ford talks.

The show would be beamed to a Michigan audience covering 75,000 of the 100,000 striking Ford workers. It was expected to be a plea from Reuther for quick ratification of the new contract. The contract would contain the biggest gains in the UAW's 30-year history of collective bargaining.

A source close to the talks told United Press International that Ford and the UAW have agreed to a pact giving immediate pay raises of 20 cents an hour for most workers and 50 cents for skilled tradesmen who this year have the power to veto any agreement.

Another Raise

All workers would get another raise of 11 cents an hour the second year and a 12 cent-an-hour raise in the third year of the contract.

The source said the agreement continues a contract clause under which auto workers get automatic pay raises every time the government's cost-of-living index rises. But he said Ford won an eight cent per year limitation on cost-of-living raises in hourly pay.

This would limit the raise to 24 cents an hour over the three-year life of the contract.

The pay raise, figured on maximum cost-of-living increases, would raise average workers' pay 67 cents an hour and skilled tradesmen by 97 cents. With fringe benefits included, the final package totals at least $1 an hour.

Littleton's store on the North side of the court square.

Mrs. Ray Smith will complete the lesson begun in September on Molding and Decorating Christmas Tree Ornaments. Yearly club dues must be paid before November.

Household Hints

United Press International

Before using a handy spray gun for your painting, mask objects you want to shield against stray paint particles. Wrapping paper of newspapers, held with masking or decorator's tape are the easiest materials to use. When painting window frames, mask panes.

Now is the time to have the heating plant in your home checked and put in ready-to-operate condition. If you wait until the first cold snap you'll be in the throng of all who have done likewise. You may have to wait for service, shivering all the time.

If your teakettle gives water a strange taste, boil unpeeled potatoes or potatoes in the five minutes. Use half a bottle of water.

To prevent a buildup of lime deposit on baby bottles, never let them stand in the hot water longer than necessary.

An investment in Your Future

...ATTEND CHURCH

A THIRSTY LAND

Men have a thirst and a longing for goodness and righteousness. Even the most parched soul is touched by acts of kindness, forgiveness, and love. Jesus said, "Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life."

May all who are thirsty for a oneness with man and with God find satisfaction and fulfillment by attending church

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
